Sir,

Subject Withdrawal of acquisition proceedings in respect of S No 1 and site No 718 of Tumkur Kasaba

In forwarding, herewith, the records ending with the Tumkur Sub Division Officer's No L A 2-3/43-44 dated 28-9-1945 on the above subject, I have the honour to state as follows

The acquisition proceedings for acquiring S No 1 and site No 718 of Tumkur Town were taken up at the instance of the Municipal Council, Tumkur as per their resolution dated 2[illegible]-10-1938 for the removal of the congestion in the Bar-line road in Tumur Town and the acquisition of the same was sanctioned by Government in their order No L 1573-5/Ml 16-43-2 dated 6-8-43 Awards have not yet been passed in respect of these lands by the Land Acquisition Officer, Tumkur Sub Division

The owners of the above properties, viz, A M Revanna Secretary of the Mutts and Temples on behalf of the Lingayat Community of Horapet for site No 718 and one Samuel Pillai, Retired Sub Inspector of Police for S No 1 have represented to the Municipality that they want to construct a Renuka Mandir and a Hostel building for the Christian Community, that they would keep the area clean and that acquisition proceedings may be withdrawn The Municipal Council have resolved on 28-7-45 that acquisition Porceedings may be withdrawn The Municipal President has requested in his letter No H C 46/45-46 dated 14-9-45 for the withdrawal of Acquisition Proceedings as the properties in question are no longer required by the Municipality and

and as the owners have undertaken to keep the area clean In the circumstances, I request that acquisition proceedings in respect of the above properties may kindly be caused to be withdrawn under Sec 48 of the Land Acquisition Regulation
